This matter comes before the Public Service Commission of South Carolina (“Commission”) on the Application of Maxxis Communications, Inc. (“Maxxis” or the “Company”) to cancel its Certificate of Public Convenience and Necessity to provide resold intrastate interexchange telecommunications services in the State of South Carolina. Maxxis additionally requests withdrawal of the Company’s tariff. A review of the docket file reveals that Maxxis’ authority to operate as a reseller of telecommunications services in South Carolina was granted by Order No. 1999-465, dated June 30, 1999.

By Application filed January 6, 2005, Maxxis seeks cancellation of its Certificate of Public Convenience and Necessity and withdrawal of the Company’s tariff which are on file with this Commission. The Company states that Maxxis is no longer operational and that the Company ceased doing business around January, 2004. Maxxis requests that any existing accounts of the Company be closed and that any existing tariffs of the Company be cancelled.

As Maxxis is no longer providing the services for which its Certificate of Public Convenience and Necessity was granted, the Commission finds and concludes that Maxxis' Certificate of Public Convenience and Necessity to provide resold intrastate interexchange telecommunications services within the State of South Carolina should be cancelled, and the Company's tariff should be withdrawn.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED THAT:

1. The Certificate of Public Convenience and Necessity to provide resold intrastate interexchange telecommunications services within the State of South Carolina authorized by Order No.1999-465, dated June 30, 1999, issued in the instant docket to Maxxis Communications, Inc. is hereby cancelled.
